Introduction to the Committee Procedures

ASCA's standing committees serve in assisting the ASCA Board of Directors in advancing the interests of the Australian Shepherd and encouraging sportsmanlike competition at ASCA shows and trials. Members with relevant expertise provide an important service to ASCA through their participation on these committees. The Board of Directors encourages members to send in their applications* resumes to fulfill this valuable role in ASCA's success. Effective February 27, 2021.

The purposes of ASCA's standing committees are as follows:

1. To serve as program experts and to advise the Board of Directors, as needed.
2. To work on directives from the Board of Directors.
3. To monitor the rule books for possible improvements and updates on an annual basis.
4. To consider new programs that will help preserve or promote ASCA and the Australian Shepherd.
5. To share information about ASCA's programs with the general public.
6. To improve and grow ASCA's programs.
7. To increase participation in ASCA's programs and in ASCA as a whole.

To achieve these purposes, all standing committees will set goals for themselves each year, as part of ASCA's Strategic Plan. These goals will guide and focus the work of the committees.
