

ASCA OBLIGATIONS

- I. ASCA shall send correspondence pertaining to the Affiliate Club to the Affiliate Representative. ASCA shall:
  1. Accept and submit any business flowing between ASCA and the Affiliate Representative.
  2. Upon request, furnish the Affiliate Representative with a copy of ASCA Rules, literature and forms for their use. All ASCA rulebooks and forms are available to the Affiliate at www.asca.org.
  3. Be responsible for relaying pertinent ASCA information to the Affiliate Representative.
- II. ASCA shall give affiliate members the opportunity to participate in committee assignments that affect the general membership or breed.
- III. ASCA shall not allow any ASCA Officer or Director to give special consideration to any one Affiliate Club.
- IV. A copy of the club's Bylaws will be supplied to the Affiliate Representative when approved by the ASCA Board of Directors. The club is required to use these Bylaws for one year before making any changes.

ASCA AFFILIATE APPLICANT'S OBLIGATIONS

ELIGIBILITY: Affiliation shall be open to any club with ten individual ASCA members who feel they can adequately carry out duties of an Affiliate Club. These ten individuals must be ASCA full or service members. All officers and directors of the Club must be full ASCA members in good standing.

ELECTION TO AFFILIATE: Each club wishing to affiliate will apply on the formal application supplied by ASCA. Each club will supply ASCA with a club membership application, officer and membership list and the current year's affiliation fee. The application for affiliation shall be sent to the Executive Secretary, who will distribute it to the Board of Directors for approval/disapproval after verifying the membership status of individual club members. Approval of the affiliation request requires an affirmative vote by a majority of the voting Directors. The Executive Secretary will send a notice of the vote results to the applicant club within forty-five (45) days of the completion of voting with the Club Bylaws. For a disapproved application the Executive Secretary will return the application to the club within forty-five (45) days of the completion of voting with an explanation for the disapproval. A club receiving a disapproved application may resubmit its application with necessary revisions within thirty days of receipt of the notice of disapproval.

- I. ASCA Affiliates shall pay annual affiliate dues to ASCA, as fixed by the Board of Directors, by the 31st of December of each year. All Affiliate Clubs will be notified on January 31st, of expiration of the deadline for renewal. Letters will be sent to the club President and Affiliate Representative, if they are not in the same household, giving them the final renewal deadline of February 15th. A renewal not received by February 15th, constitutes a lapse of affiliation. Lapsed affiliates will be terminated and must re-apply using the new Affiliate application process.
- II. ASCA Affiliates shall maintain the office of Affiliate Representative. The Affiliate Representative is a club officer. The Affiliate Representative shall:
  1. Be a full member in good standing of ASCA and the Affiliate Club.
  2. Accept and submit all business flowing between ASCA and the Affiliate.
  3. Maintain a current copy of ASCA rules and literature (available at www.asca.org).
- III. The offices of the Secretary and Treasurer may be combined. All other Officer and Director positions will be held by different members.
