

THE AUSTRALIAN SHEPHERD CLUB OF AMERICA®

6091 E State Hwy 21
Bryan, TX 77808
www.asca.org

P: (979) 778-1082
manager@asca.org
executive.secretary@asca.org

ASCA's Conflict Resolution Request Form

If you find the need to file a request for conflict resolution or find that you are involved in a conflict/dispute, please refer to the Conflict Resolution Protocol, at the back of all ASCA program rulebooks. Please try to resolve problems yourself, without a formal request for resolution, whenever possible. If you are unable to resolve a problem, use this form to file a formal request for conflict resolution with an Affiliate or the ASCA Board of Directors under ASCA's Conflict Resolution Protocol, which must be read and followed in this formal procedure.

If you fail to complete all fields, your request will not be processed.

Your Name: _____ ASCA Member ID: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

List all people mentioned in the Request: _____

(You must serve a copy of this form to everyone named above.) Today's Date: _____

What was the date of the incident leading to this Request? _____

What was the date you first learned of the incident? _____

State the grounds for your conflict below. Include reference to ASCA rules, regulations, and/or bylaws that have been violated. You can attach an additional page, if necessary.

Signature: _____ (By signing here you certify that you have attempted to resolve this conflict informally and that you have served parties with this form as required.)